COMMUNITY CONNECT VOLUNTEER PORTAL
LAUNCHED BY BUTLER COUNTY UNITED WAY

Butler County, OH –

As a way to bring volunteers together with those who need volunteers, Butler County United Way has launched CommUnity Connect, a free, online volunteer portal to benefit the greater Butler County area.

CommUnity Connect requires volunteers and agencies or organizations to register just once. Once registered, those who are interested in volunteering their time and talents can select the volunteer event posted by area agencies and organizations that best fits with their time and talents. It provides a central location to match volunteers and volunteer needs in one, easily accessible, online site.

“Butler County United Way has always recognized the impact that volunteering can have on a community,” stated Mag Baker, President and CEO of Butler County United Way. “This portal will simplify the process of connecting people with the projects they are most passionate about and will give our community agencies an easy platform to attract the volunteers that will help them reach their goals. We are pleased and excited to provide this tool to the community.”

Community members, agencies and organizations are encouraged to register for the site by visiting www.bc-unitedway.org/volunteeropportunities.
