THREE NEW COMMUNITY LEADERS JOIN BUTLER COUNTY UNITED WAY BOARD

(Butler County, OH) Butler County United Way is pleased to welcome Andrea Blevins, Matthew Brackmann, and Yvette Kelly-Fields as they begin their first terms on the Butler County United Way Board of Trustees. Each year, Butler County United Way recruits new board members well versed in its key impact areas of youth opportunity, healthy community, financial security, and community resilience, as it works to mobilize communities to action so all can thrive.

Andrea Blevins is the Superintendent of Hamilton City Schools, with more than 20 years of experience in expanding education and youth opportunity in Butler County school districts including Edgewood, Middletown, Lakota, and Hamilton. Matthew Brackmann, Managing Director of Audit and Assurance at Deloitte, joins the board with over 18 years of audit experience serving organizations across various industries, including nonprofits. Yvette Kelly-Fields, a seasoned nonprofit professional, is currently the Regional Director of Advancement at Miami University, raising an average of $90 million annually as part of the University's 10-year major gifts campaign.

Butler County Board of Trustees Chair Andrew Schnell, Senior Vice President, The Cincinnati Insurance Companies, says he is thrilled to welcome these three to the board and looks forward for the knowledge and various skill sets they bring to the table. "It is vital to recruit new community leaders to the board, as it allows us to discover new perspectives and tackle Butler County's largest problems in new and innovative ways. I look forward to learning from and working with these exceptional leaders as we unite to make Butler County a place where all can thrive," said Schnell.
