LEADERSHIP CHANGE ANNOUNCED AT BUTLER COUNTY UNITED WAY

Butler County, OH – – Lawrence P. Mulligan, Chair of Butler County United Way Board of Trustees, today announced Krystal A. Tipton, President and CEO is leaving Butler County United Way, effective April 28, 2023. Tipton will take on a new role in Senior Development at Miami University.

“It has truly been an honor leading this organization, and I am grateful for your support of its mission and vision,” said Tipton. “This is an incredibly giving community that is engaged in finding new ways to help people improve their lives. I am both confident and excited about the future of Butler County United Way.”

Tipton joined Butler County United Way in January 2013 and directed the Community Impact Division of the organization until assuming the President and CEO role in March of 2021. In Tipton’s tenure at Butler County United Way, she provided key information in the development of the organization’s three-year strategic plan, collaborating with board members, community members, partner agency leaders, and loyal donors. During the tenuous period when the COVID pandemic clouded the non-profit world, the organization was able to reach an agreement to transfer the Middletown service area to Butler County United Way, consolidating all Butler County service areas under one United Way.

“We wish Krystal well as she pursues this new career opportunity,” stated Mulligan. “We appreciate her lengthy tenure with our organization and her dedication to working with our partner agencies as we create impact across Butler County. I am confident that the seasoned staff of Butler County United Way will carry on the mission and vision of Butler County United Way as we work to identify a permanent replacement.”
